ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL Broadway, New York. W HEN completed six years ago the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient and theroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then it remains to-day—without a rival in size, in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1600 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably scated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social grafification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad, durived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its home-like comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced
